

Let's Talk Rights: Dementia and Empowerment

The Human Rights Commission of NL has invited speakers from the national dementia community to participate in a virtual panel discussion focused on dementia, human rights, and research ethics. We invite you to join us on Wednesday, March 1st from 6:30-7:30 NST. Registration is required.

Carey Majid (she/her)
Executive Director of the
NL Human Rights
Commission

Julie Robillard, PhD (she/her)
Assistant Professor of Neurology, University of British Columbia, Scientist in Patient
Experience, BC Children's &
Women's Hospitals

Christine Thelker
(she/her)
Elder Care Advocate
Person living with
Dementia

Karen Myers Barnett
(she/her)
Dementia Advocate
Social Service & Community
Worker Professional

Catherine Kelly (she/her)
Dementia Advocate and
Former Care Partner

Myrna Norman (she/her)
Dementia Advocate
Person living with
Dementia

